"GREATEST SIN"

Was the Taking of $20 of Republican Money, Then Supporting Bryan.Wokomo, Ind., Dec. 31.—There was an unusual scene at a religious revival at Kempton, south of here, conducted by a Quaker minister. After several converts had made confessions, one "Peg" Wallace volunteered to make a confession of his greatest sin, and in so doing said: "The greatest sin of my life was committed at the last election. A fellow gave me $20 to vote for McKinley and I took his money and then voted for Bryan.
Next time I will vote as they pay me." A short benediction closed the meeting.

WATCH MEETING

Held to Usher in the New Year and Century.At Golconda, Ill., a Couple were Married at the Stroke of Twelve.The new month, the new year and the new Century were ushered in at midnight Monday night with the blowing of whistles, ringing of fire bells, popping of fire works and with religious services at four of the local churches.There were many watch parties also and the New Year was given a happy welcome. At some of the watch parties only two persons were present and in these cases both parties were reticent as to the ceremonies indulged in at the witching hour of twelve.Just as the town clock began to strike, the wildcat whistle at Forbes & Bro's. began to shriek and the fire bell to ring. Other whistles took up the refrain and several church bells joined in the din.Church services were held by the Methodist, Episcopal, First Presbyterian and Catholic churches and at all four the attendance was good. At some of these meetings refreshments were served. The services consisted of prayers, songs and addresses. At the Western Asylum a ball was given and a number of young people from the city went out and danced the old year out.The first day of the new century dawned bright and crisp with the mercury at 18 degrees.No New Year was ever given a brighter start and the weather remained clear and cold for the next two or three days. On New Year's day the Louisville & Nashville Railway Company did no local business. The banks kept open as usual. There were no deaths in the city on the first day of the year and no births were reported.A novel watch party was reported from Paducah, Ky., given by Misses Ruth and Carrie Hoewischer, of Golconda, Ill.Shortly before 12 the crowd was delightfully surprised by the announcement that the latter young woman and R. B. Thompson, of Metropolis, were to be married. Just as the church bell was bidding adieu to the old century, and welcoming the new, the ceremony was performed which made them man and wife. They passed through Paducah next morning enroute to Metrolis.

Xmas at Howell.

Our village and vicinity have been in one continual round of gayety, dinings being the order of day. Some of our hospitable citizens have spread such dinners as would have made Lucullus envious of their culinary departments. Mr. and Mrs. George McKnight intertained on Wednesday evening in honor of Misses Embury and Keatts.
Crokinole and Carroms were the chief features of the evening.
Mr. Olen Wilson won the championship.At a late hour delicious refreshments were served, such as make the hearts of youth bubble over with joy. Monday evening the young people were entertained at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Steger. Throngs of bright faces and happy hearts collected there to witness the close of the nineteenth and the beginning of the twentieth century, and amid feats of laughter from hearts that bore peace and good will to all men the old year faded into the past and the new stole softly upon us with hopes as bright as those that died with the old.It was an occasion that will be ever fresh in the minds of those who attended.Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wilson, of Selma, Ala., are the pleasant guests of Mrs. F. E. Wilson.With best wishes for a prosperous its readers. "Sobieski."Pawnbrokers prefer customers
